WINEMAKER NOTES

The 2015 CALIFORNIA Wine Company Chardonnay is bright, vibrant and light gold in color. The wine's soft entry leads to a medium bodied mid-palate, with generous volume and soft-to-medium acidity. This refreshing Chardonnay offers aromas of sweet pear and green apple with engaging flavors of peach and poached pear. Light creaminess up-front (comes from stirring of the lees during neutral oak aging) is balanced with a rich mid-palate and light acidity on the finish.

Sourced from vineyards on the Central Coast and Lodi, this wine sails onto the palate with ripe core fruit, alluring creaminess and a smooth and firm palate presence. If you are looking for a bona-fide, everyday upscale Chardonnay, this 2015 California Wine Company Chardonnay is for you. This is a wine that everyone will love!
